

I'm trying to find out any good reason aside from lining bureacratic special interest groups pockets as to why anyone would want to eliminate local news and weather from sattelite radio....but there is no other reason. Concentrate on important matters such as our military and civilian safety, airport security, drug trafficking, sex crimes and terrorism and leave the greater good alone.

Thanks for listening,

Stan